August 19-21, Hyundai Hotel, Gyeongju, Korea

ECM 123

123rd IUVSTA
Executive Council
Meeting

For further information, please visit: www.ivc20.com/sub01_6.php

ECM 123 will be held in Gyeongju, Korea, from August 19 to 21, 2016.

The city of Gyeongju served as the ancient capital of the Silla Kingdom for 1,000 years during Korea's 5,000-year history and is a UNESCO world heritage city.

Like Rome, it is considered an “Open-ceiling Museum,” with its many historical sites rich in cultural artifacts.

Full-day half-day tour programs will be available, so please visit the website for details.

ECM 123 Dinner on August 20

Korean Traditional Cuisine @ Yosokkoong

Yosokkoong is the site of a 7th century palace from the Silla Kingdom where a princess called “Yosok” once lived. Thereafter, the Choi family, one of the symbols of Korean nobility began living in and around the area from the 18th century. The Chois have continued to hand down its recipes from generation to generation such that in time it has come to establish itself as a name well associated with Gyeongju area cuisine.
